

Constantino ZIOGAS

Constantinos Ziogas is administrator in the SME Office at the European Medicines Agency.

Since joining the EMEA in 1996, Constantinos Ziogas has held several positions, initially as project manager for centralised marketing authorisations applications for biologicals and new chemical entities.

Thereafter he served as scientific administrator in the Scientific Advice and Orphan Drugs Division where he was responsible for coordination of scientific advice on drug development to pharmaceutical companies. Constantinos Ziogas is also a member of the EMEA Innovation Task Force and of EMEA Audit Advisory Committee.

From 2007, Constantinos Ziogas works in the SME Office at the European Medicines Agency. Constantinos Ziogas is a graduate in medicine from the Free University Of Brussels where he also completed a training pharmaceutical medicine.