

Peter SCHINTLMEISTER

- Federal Ministry of Economics and Labour
Austria

Austria's Federal Ministry of Economics and Labour comprises the areas of Economic Policy, Technology and Innovation, Foreign Trade Policy and European Integration, Enterprise, Labour Market, Labour Law, Energy and Mining, Tourism and Historical Objects.

Born 1964, Peter Schintlmeister completed his studies at the Technical University of Graz as a Chemical Engineer with emphasis on Biotechnology. After positions in industry and non-profit-organisations he joined the Federal Ministry of Economics and Labour in 2002, where he since is in charge of the area of Life Sciences and Biotechnology. Amongst other duties he represents the ministry in various groups and networks, especially with the European Commission or at the OECD. Peter Schintlmeister also was elected Chairman of the ERA-NET EURO-TRANSBIO in fall 2007.